

GENERAL CRIME

Criminal proceedings are often extremely sensitive and require careful and difficult decisions to be made at a very early stage.

We are passionately committed to protecting your best interests and will ensure that you receive proactive, thorough and strategic advice from the outset of your matter.

Our criminal team has the experience and foresight to advise you on any criminal proceedings that you are faced with, including the following:

- Police station representation and advice;
- Representation at the Magistrates' Courts, Crown Courts and Courts of Appeal;
- Fraud;
- Sexual offences;
- Homicide and serious violence offences;

- Dishonesty offences: theft, burglary, robbery, deception, blackmail;
- Criminal damage;
- Cybercrime;
- Extradition and international crime;
- Police complaints and misconduct;
- Drug offences;
- Road traffic and driving offences.

Our criminal team will work relentlessly on your case and, where appropriate, make submissions for all charges against you to be dropped. Where this is not possible, we will explore all of your options to ensure that you put forward the best defence possible.

For more information call 00 44 (0) 20 7240 0521 or email Maya.Paunrana@mackrell.com.

www.mackrell.com

To find out more about how we can help you, please contact us:

Maya Paunrana
Solicitor, London

T: 00 44 (0) 207 240 0521

E: Maya.Paunrana@mackrell.com

www.mackrell.com

