As a founding member of Mackrell International, one of the largest international organisations of independent law firms in the world with 170 offices globally, we have unrivalled legal expertise in all aspects of international law to support cross-border transactions and multi-jurisdictional aircraft repossessions.

We are here to help and assist with:

- Aircraft and airline start-ups and corporate governance.
- Aircraft purchase and sale agreements including:
  - Commercial loans.
  - Pre-delivery payment.
  - Export-credit supported financing.
  - Operating and finance leases.
  - Tax-based lease financing.
  - Sale and lease-backs.
  - Corporate jet and helicopter financing.
- Restructuring and refinancing support.
- Tear down and part out agreements.
- Termination notices and court orders to facilitate repossessions.
- Legal issues relating to the use of drones including trespass and privacy disputes.

Members of our specialist aviation legal team are here to offer practical advice and legal support relating to aircraft transactions, disputes and debts.
